A failure to provide this form or the herein-mentioned identity documents to the withholding agent (usually the promoter), and the providing of incorrect or incomplete information results in an increased withholding tax rate of 52% (instead of 20%). If a GROSS FEE is agreed, this results in a 48% net payment instead of 80%. If a NET FEE is agreed, a failure to provide results in receiving only 15% instead of 100% of the total net fee. Please note: there is no exception to this rule!

The Total Fee Statement Form 2009 (Gageverklaring 2009) - General information

v2009-1

The Total Fee Statement Form is to be used in case of a foreign artist, group of foreign artists⁽¹⁾ or professional athlete(s) with a temporary engagement in the Netherlands, only in case they are residing in a country without a treaty for the avoidance of double taxation with the Netherlands. On the basis of the information given in this statement the withholding agent (usually the promoter) withholds 20% foreign artist wage tax. The basis for withholding artist wage tax is the gross taxable fee or 'belastbare bruto gage' (this is the gross fee plus all cost reimbursements and benefits in kind, less deductible expenses). Excluded from taxation are free meals and drinks, and reimbursements of stay and travel expenses (but only if original tickets and invoices are handed to the promoter). A foreign artist or group of foreign artists⁽¹⁾ residing in The Dutch Antilles, Aruba or in a country with a treaty for the avoidance of double taxation with the Netherlands, will be exempt from Dutch taxation as from 1 January 2007.

Deduction for expenses Every artist will make expenses in connection to the performance in The Netherlands. To the extent that these expenses are business like, deduction is allowed upon withholding. There are two ways to effectuate the relief for expenses: the Small Artist Deduction (Kleine Vergoedings Regeling KVR) and the Cost Deduction Ruling (Kosten Vergoedings Beschikking KVB). In both ways the basis for taxation (the gross taxable fee) is reduced, so less tax is withheld and the more net fee remains for the artist. If deduction equals the total gross fee, no tax is due.

Small Artist Deduction (KVR) Every artist subject to withholding is entitled to deduction of a lump sum amount of max.163 Euro per performance per person. This lump sum deduction can be applied without prior clearance from the tax authorities. Considering the relatively low amount of the deduction, this is called the Small Artist Deduction or 'Kleine Vergoedings Regeling'.

Cost Deduction Ruling (KVB) As an alternative, the artist or band can claim a higher deduction for expenses using a Cost Deduction Ruling or 'Kosten Vergoedings Beschikking'. This deduction requires approval from the tax inspector. The request for a KVB can be filed with the tax authorities in advance on the basis of estimated figures. The artist, the leader or representative of the band, or the withholding agent, can file it. The withholding agent, who has to file this request within one month after the concert, can also file the request after the concert (on the basis of real figures).

Gross fee or net fee? Sometimes a gross fee is agreed between artist and promoter. Often this is not the case. Many artists don't like to worry about taxation and deduction of expenses. They just want to know how much they get paid in cash after the performance. In that case a net fee is agreed between artist and promoter. When a net fee is agreed, the promoter is responsible for calculating the gross taxable fee and paying the artist tax. The gross taxable fee in this case is calculated as 125% of the net fee less deduction (so the artist tax is 25% on top of the total net fee less deduction).

A net fee and the deduction of expenses Although for the artist the agreed total net fee is a fixed remuneration, the promoter can still ask the artist to agree in claiming deduction (using the Small Artist Deduction or Cost Deduction Ruling). Doing so reduces the taxable basis for withholding, so less tax has to be paid by the promoter. As a result the total cost of a performance is reduced. If deduction equals the agreed net fee, no tax is due.

Filing a Dutch tax return? The 20% withholding tax is in principle a final tax. The foreign artist however has the option to file a Dutch tax return after the closing of the tax year. Filing a Dutch tax return can result in a tax refund if there are (substantial) expenses which have not been considered upon withholding and/or the total remuneration less expenses is below approximately 50,000 Euro (2004), as a consequence of which the effective Dutch income tax rate will be lower than the 20% foreign artist wage tax rate. For more info check the Dutch Tax and Customs Administration on www.belastingdienst.nl

Formalities In order to perform in the Netherlands as a foreign artist (residing in a non tax treaty country) certain formalities need to be fulfilled. This includes:

- providing a properly filled out, signed and dated Total Fee Statement Form (Gageverklaring) to the withholding agent (usually the promoter) before the performance takes place;
- providing a copy of a legally valid identity document of the foreign solo artist;
- or providing copies of legally valid identity documents of at least 50% of the members of a foreign group of artists.

Gegevens van het gezelschap en verdeling van de gage Als u leider of vertegenwoordiger bent van een gezelschap, vult u ook deze kant van de gageverklaring in.

Toelichting bij vraag 5 Kolom 1 en 2 In de eerste twee kolommen vult u de persoonlijke gegevens van alle leden van het gezelschap in, ook als zij geen gage ontvangen. Vul altijd de echte naam in en niet de artiestennaam. Vermeld het volledige adres en bij een buitenlands lid van het gezelschap ook het land. Bij een buitenlands lid hoeft u geen BSN/sofinummer in te vullen. Kolom 3 In de derde kolom vult u eerst de individuele brutogage van elk lid van het gezelschap in. Dat wil zeggen: het deel van de brutogage, inclusief gage in natura en algemene en individuele kostenvergoedingen, dat aan het lid moet worden toegerekend. U mag ook een percentage invullen. Als u in deze kolom niets invult, wordt de brutogage gelijk verdeeld over alle leden van het gezelschap. In de derde kolom vult u verder het bedrag in van individuele kostenvergoedingsbeschikkingen. Maakt u gebruik van een kostenvergoedingsbeschikking voor een gezelschap, dan moet u het bedrag van die beschikking aan de individuele leden toerekenen. Zonder kostenvergoedingsbeschikking mag u voor elk lid van het gezelschap de kleinvergoedingsregeling toepassen (zie de toelichting op de voorkant). Er kan maar van één regeling tegelijkertijd gebruik worden gemaakt. Let op! Bij leden van een buitenlands gezelschap die in het buitenland wonen, mag u geen rekening houden met een eventuele individuele kostenvergoedingsbeschikking, ook niet als er geen kostenvergoedingsbeschikking voor het gezelschap is. Bij leden van een buitenlands gezelschap die in Nederland wonen, mag u wel rekening houden met een individuele kostenvergoedingsbeschikking, maar alleen als er geen sprake is van een kostenvergoedingsbeschikking voor het gezelschap. Kolom 4 In de laatste kolom ondertekent elk lid van het gezelschap dat in Nederland woont, de verklaring.
